Welcome

Pastor Jim Wallace

Entry Into Celebration

(RESPONSIVE)

ROBERT CUSICK, LITURGIST

The congregation is asked to hold up their palms.

Dear friends in Christ, today, and with the Church throughout the world, we remember how our Lord entered his own city to suffer, die, and rise again. Let us go with him in faith and love, so that, united with him in his sufferings, we may share his risen life. Let these palms be for us signs of his victory; and grant that we who bear them in his name may ever hail him as our King, and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life; now and forever.

Amen.

Hosanna!

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest heaven!

Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna!

Invitation to Prayer

As we enter Holy Week and turn our hearts again to the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, let us pray together...

*Prayer Leading to New Life and New Beginnings

(UNISON)

We praise you, O God, for the great acts of love by which you redeemed the world through Jesus Christ our Lord. Today we remember how he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph and was proclaimed Messiah and king.

Praise filled the air as people spread branches and garments along his way.

Forgive our ways.

We confess that we have not hailed Jesus as king or gone before him into the world with praise. For brief faith that fades in trouble, for enthusiasms that fizzle out, for hopes we parade but do not pursue, have mercy on us. Give us such trust in your power that in every city and town we may acknowledge your kingdom with praise.

Let these branches be signs of our welcome and our "hosannas" an acclamation of praise, that we who carry them and lift up our voice may follow in the way of suffering and the cross; then, by dying and rising with him, we shall enter your kingdom forever. Amen
