Welcome

Entry Into Celebration

(RESPONSIVE)

FROM SACREDISE.COM
DAN BREEN, LITURGIST

Once again, we gather, from different homes and circumstances, with different dreams and ideas, different values and tastes, different in age and color, different in gender and language,

Yet, we are one family - Children of God every one; we join our hearts in worship, we join our voices in praise and we join our lives as the Body of Christ. Amen

Call to Prayer

In the assurance of God's amazing grace,
let us make our confession together...

*Prayer Leading to New Life and New Beginnings

(UNISON)

FROM SACREDISE.COM

Lord God, we have found a home in You; we have found a family in You; we have found a place to belong; to know and be known, to love and be loved. And we are so grateful for this awesome gift. But, too easily, we forget the benefits it brings; we have forgotten our place, and doubted Your love; remind us, and all who feel neglected by You, that we are engraved on Your hands. We have forgotten who we are, and have failed to care for ourselves; remind us, and all who feel worthless, that You have called us by name. We have forgotten our connectedness, and have divided ourselves; remind us, and all who would exclude, oppress and condemn others, that we are all made in Your image, and we are all one body. Amen.

The Lord's Table-
Where All Are Welcome
(RESPONSIVE)

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

On the night before He died, Jesus took the loaf of bread and, after blessing it and breaking it, He gave it to His friends: Remember Me whenever You eat. This is my body given for all.

When supper was finished, He took a cup of wine, and after blessing and pouring it, He gave it to His friends: Remember Me whenever You drink. This is my blood shed for all.

With thanksgiving we eat and drink; with joy we remember; and with Christ's inclusive love we gather together around His table, as together we pray,

Our Father...
