

 Franciscan Blessing Upon the Graduates by the Congregation

(UNISON)

May God bless you with discomfort at easy answers, half-truths, and superficial relationships, so that you may live deep within your heart.

May God bless you with anger at injustice, oppression, and exploitation of people, so that you may work for justice, freedom and peace.

May God bless you with tears to shed for those who suffer from pain, rejection, starvation and war, so that you may reach out your hand to comfort them and to turn their pain into joy.

May God bless you with enough foolishness to believe that you can make a difference in this world, so that you can do what others claim cannot be done. Amen.

Prayer of Invocation for the Graduates

(UNISON)

God of our comings and goings, we stand at this moment in thanksgiving for the grace that has brought us thus far.

For the love of parents, family and friends; opportunities undeserved and beyond measure; this community of faith and all it has supplied, we praise you.

God of our dreams, hopes and visions, send us with your presence, power and peace.

God of our risings and fallings; help us to understand and fully appreciate the gift of years past, the blessing of this moment, and the promise of tomorrow.

We pray all this in the name your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Where All Are Welcome

(RESPONSIVE)

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

On the night before He died, Jesus took the loaf of bread and, after blessing it and breaking it, He gave it to His friends: Remember Me whenever You eat.

This is my body given for all.

When supper was finished, He took a cup of wine, and after blessing and pouring it, He gave it to His friends: Remember Me whenever You drink.

This is my blood shed for all.

With thanksgiving we eat and drink; With joy we remember; And with Christ's inclusive love we gather together around His table, as together we pray,

Our Father...
