Entry Into Celebration

(RESPONSIVE)

LISA MCKILLIPS, LITURGIST

On this World Communion Sunday, we join in the promise:

People will come from east and west, and from north and south, and sit at table in the kingdom of God.

Amen! May it be so!

Invitation to Prayer

As those who share a place in the worldwide community of Christ’s followers, let us pray...

*Prayers for the World

(UNISON)

Creator God, you made humankind in your image, with diverse colors of skin, hair, and eyes, varied features, heights and widths, differing languages, dialects and tongues. Yet all of us are beautiful in your sight! Forgive discrimination of any kind. Dissolve suspicion between peoples.
Tear down walls between countries. Bring your reconciling peace to the whole world, that your reign may come on earth as it is in heaven.
Through Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.

*Moment of Silent Prayer and Reflection

*With God's Grace We Can Begin Anew

God calls us to meet the real needs of real people.
One of the great needs imperfect people share is that of forgiveness. Friends, believe the good news: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

Don't Keep it to Yourself

Through forgiveness we are granted peace with God and peace with each other. Please share the peace that Christ desires for all the earth. Peace be with you.

And with you also.

(RESPONSIVE)

Loving and gracious God, thank you for this holy meal.

Thank you for Jesus and his all-inclusive love for humanity.

Thank you for this day where we gather with the church across the world to worship and serve you.

God, may this bread connect us more closely with you and with our neighbors near and far.

Bless this bread, we pray!

May this fruit of the vine remind us of the inter-connectedness of people around the world.

Bless this cup, we pray!

May this simple meal bring us into union with you, your people, your world, and unite us in the One Body of Christ. Amen.
