Entry Into Celebration

(RESPONSIVE)

RAY BEYER, LITURGIST

Mighty God, sovereign over the nations, govern those who make, administer, and judge our laws; the President of the United States, Congress, the Supreme Court, state and local legislators and public servants and all others in authority among us.

Eternal Ruler, hope of all the earth, give vision to those who govern all countries; that, with goodwill and justice, they may rule in accord with your way and draw together a world devoted to peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Call to Prayer

We are called upon to offer prayer as individuals, as a congregation, as a community. Today, let us pray as citizens of our nation...

*Prayer Leading to New Life and New Beginnings

(UNISON)

Almighty God, you have given us this good land as our heritage. We thank you for this nation, its worthy aims and highest ideals; its people who have created, invented, built, enriched and shaped the world; and those who have come to our shores with customs and accents to enrich our common life.

Forgive our shortcomings as a nation: pride that overlooks national wrongs, or justifies injustice; divisions caused by prejudice or greed; discord stirred up within the citizenry and based upon politics, race, religion, fear, appealing to our "lesser angels."

GREETERS:	Nancy Wiley & Carol Little

Defend our liberties and give those whom we have entrusted the temperance and wisdom to act for the common good, not just for persons who can benefit those already in power. Increase our concern for the poor and afflicted in our own land, and for people beyond our own boundaries that we may be a blessing and an example to all nations.

Have mercy, God, on the heart of this land. Make us compassionate, fair, kind and helpful to each other. Raise up in us a right patriotism that sees and seeks this nation's good in light of your word and in service to others, lest we neglect the gift and responsibility we share as one nation and one people. Amen.

(RESPONSIVE)

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We thank you for the many gifts you have entrusted with us to further your good intentions on earth.

For the gift of life, the gift of speech, the ability to govern, and the freedom to choose, we praise you.

Move the heart of every citizen that the barriers which divide us may crumble and suspicions disappear, so that as we encourage and support one another, we may serve those in need and hasten the coming of your love, peace and justice on earth.

All this we ask, O God, in gratitude and to honor you. Amen
