Entry Into Celebration

(RESPONSIVE)

KELCIE ANDERSON, LITURGIST

We're really not that different from these "others",
God;

We may speak a different language,
or wear different clothes,

but we love and worry as they do,
and we struggle and doubt as they do,

and we even fail and sin as they do.

And so, we pray for all the places in our world where people suffer, where terrible things are happening,

and we pray that we may find in ourselves the grace that brings comfort and healing to these hurting ones.

"O for a World"

Call to Prayer

In the assurance of God's amazing grace,
let us make our confession together...

*Prayer Leading to New Life and New Beginnings

(UNISON)

This inappropriate grace of yours, Jesus, is a remarkable thing, liberating and renewing and transforming; raising up the least and surprising the great, creating connections where none would usually be, and scandalizing those who worship the gods of wealth, legality, exclusivity and custom. Thank you for a grace that ignores our sensibilities, and that welcomes, heals and dignifies even the likes of us. Amen.

*Moment of Silent Prayer and Reflection
